Who we are

amiga is the central contact point for international professionals, graduates and students seeking to shape their future career in Munich. As a communal project, amiga supports talents from all over the world with various consulting services and event offers - hand in hand with strong partners from the areas of education, labour and economy.

Our services for employers

International recruiting, securing skilled workers and labour market integration are the core issues at amiga. To do this, we rely on a strong network of partners, such as the Munich universities, the employment agency, IHK Munich and Upper Bavaria. We consider ourselves as a sparring partner for your employer branding, recruiting and CSR activities with the following offers:

Free publication of your job listings

We address amiga participants from our international talent pool who match your requirements profile. We are also happy to place your job advertisement in our newsletter or on our social media channels.

Join as exhibitor at amiga Career Day

Pick up international talents on their career path and become an exhibitor at the annual amiga Career Day.

Business Talk

Present your company and your industry in a one-hour session (online or face-to-face). We promote your stand-alone event and approach candidates who match the profiles you are looking for.
